Ever forced to deal with a lemon that didn’t seem to cooperate and a car dealer with a sour disposition to match? Michael Sacks lives to help you out of those situations! The Director of Communications and Client Services for Kimmel and Silverman is ready for your horror stories, a couple of weeks before Halloween.

The host of the 1-800-Lemon Law Lemon Aid Minute
has plenty to share.

Michael joins
Dan “Boots” Longenette,
Steve Germain, Lex McAllister, and
Randy Rhinehart
on Auto Smarts presented by Germain.com, Sunday from 2-4pm on 610 WTVN.

From model quirks to extensive recalls, Michael has the information you need and shares it with callers at 821-WTVN
or toll free at 800-610-WTVN.

You can also email the crew at www.autosmartsradio.com
and join us via Facebook or Twitter!

Mark Bloom wants to make sure the drivers of tomorrow are not adequate. He wants them to excel behind the wheel.

He joins the gang to talk about a headline-making arrangement his

Bloom School of Driving Dynamix has with law enforcement to make sure today’s teens are the safest drivers ever.

□□□□ Every week it seems there’s another legal issue or challenge when it comes to dealing with impaired driving. Attorney Jack Moser keeps track of those issues. Even if you don’t partake in any kind of spirit, he can tell you how legal interpretations can effect the sober in his weekly b usted for drunk driving.com feature.

□□□□ Auto Smarts presented by Germain.com has now gone into syndication. If you can’t wait for Sunday, a one-hour version of the show can be heard Saturday mornings at 11
on
NewsRadio 630 WLAP in Lexington, Kentucky
.

Hit the net at www.wlap.com
for an extra dose of the region’s premiere auto show!

□□□□