

From Brighton, MI, Corrigan Propane Races as Associate Sponsor on GEICO Chevrolet SS Driven by Casey Mears

June 13, 2014 ( Mooresville, NC ) – Corrigan Propane began in 1958, when Bernie Corrigan started the business with a single service station and one tow truck. Similarly, Germain Racing began modestly and moved into the spotlight of NASCAR's biggest stage, the NASCAR Sprint Cup Series. Sunday in Brooklyn, MI, at Michigan International Speedway, the No. 13 GEICO Chevrolet SS will feature Corrigan Propane as an associate sponsor for the Quicken Loans 400.

What began as a single service station has expanded into a family of companies including: Corrigan Propane is the residential arm of a family of Corrigan companies like Corrigan 24-hour Towing, Corrigan Construction, Corrigan Lubricants, Corrigan Transportation, Corrigan Propane and Technical Environmental Services. Today Corrigan is owned by Mike and Tim Corrigan and the company's five Michigan locations provide solutions for commercial and residential customers in Michigan, Illinois, Indiana and Ohio.

In Michigan, Castrol Automotive & Heavy Duty Lubricants are authorized for sale only by Corrigan through Corrigan Oil – a name familiar to stock car racing fans as the title sponsor of the ARCA Racing Series event at Michigan International Speedway. The Corrigan sales team staff has had hundreds of hours of training to be able to assess customers' needs so that they can provide innovative solutions that deliver profitability combined with highest quality Castrol products and services available. This goes for all lines of Corrigan's business, including Corrigan Propane.

Saturday the 14th the GEICO Chevy SS featuring the Corrigan Propane logo will be on track for practice sessions at 9:00 AM and 12:30 PM and Sunday's 200-lap, 400-mile race on Father's Day is set to begin at 1:00 PM ET.
